1. Purpose of the Charter

1.1 Purpose of the Charter

This Charter aims to organize the work of the Company Board in the Company by defining its competencies, responsibilities, duties, procedures, and work mechanism, controls for convening Board meetings, the functions and tasks of the organizational structure of the Board, in accordance with the requirements of Companies Law, the Implementing Regulations for the Companies Law, the Company's Bylaw and the Corporate Governance Regulations issued by the Authority and other applicable laws and regulations.

1.2 Scope of Implementation

Notwithstanding the applicable laws and regulations in force in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, the Company's Bylaw, internal regulations and policies, this Charter shall be complementary thereto, read and interpreted therewith without replacing them. This Charter shall apply to:

- 1.2.1 The Board and Board Secretary.
- 1.2.2 Board Committees.
- 1.2.3 Executive Management.

2. Regulations & Procedures of the Board

2.1 Board Formation

- 2.1.1 The Company shall be managed by the Board composed of (7) Seven members, including the Board Chairman and Deputy Chairman, appointed by the Company's General Assembly using cumulative voting for a period not exceeding (4) four years, and may be re-elected. The number of independent Board members shall not be less than (3) three members or one third of the members of the Board, whichever is higher.
- 2.1.2 The Board shall appoint a Board Chairman and a Deputy Chairman from among its members.
- 2.1.3 The Board shall appoint a Board Secretary for it, provided the fulfillment of the necessary conditions mentioned in Article (9) hereof.

2.2 Rules of Nominating the Board Members

- 2.2.1 The nomination of new members of the Board shall be announced before the expiry of the term of the current Board.
- 2.2.2 Any of the current members shall have the right to nominate themselves for the subsequent board term.
- 2.2.3 The CV of applicants for membership shall be reviewed and evaluated by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee (NRC), and it is prohibited to combine the position of the Chairman of the Board with any other executive position in the Company, such as: The position of Managing Director or CEO.

2.3 Temporary Appointment

- 2.3.1 If the position of a member elected by the General Assembly becomes vacant, the Board has the right to appoint a temporary member in the vacant position, provided that the member shall be fulfilling the necessary expertise and efficiency. Such temporary appointment shall be presented to the Ordinary General Ordinary Assembly at its first meeting, and the new member shall complete the remaining membership period of their predecessor. The Board shall notify the Authority and Ministry of Commerce of such appointment within five (5) working days from the date of the appointment.
- 2.3.2 If the necessary quorum for the meeting of the Board is not met due to the lack of the required minimum of board members stipulated in the Companies Law or the Company's Bylaw, the remaining members shall invite the Ordinary General Assembly to convene within (60) sixty days to elect the necessary number of members.

3. Board Membership Expiry

- 3.1 The membership of the Board shall expire upon the end of its term or upon the expiry of the member's term of office in accordance with any applicable rules and regulations in the Kingdom.
- 3.2 The General Assembly may, at any time, dismiss all or some of the Board members. A Board member may resign, provided that such resignation shall be at the appropriate time, otherwise, the member shall be liable before the Company for the damages resulting from such resignation.
- 3.3 The Company's General Assembly may, based on a recommendation from the Board, terminate the membership of a member who fails to attend (3) three consecutive meetings or (5) five intermittent meetings during the term of their membership without a legitimate excuse accepted by the Board.
- 3.4 If a Board member resigns and has feedback on the performance of the Company, the member shall submit a written statement elaborating on their feedback to the Board Chairman. This statement shall be presented to the Board members.

4. Duties and Responsibilities of the Board

- 4.1 Notwithstanding the authorities of the General Assembly set out in the Companies law, its Implementing Regulations and the Company's Bylaw, the Board shall have the widest authorities in managing the Company and running its affairs to achieve its objectives. Since the Board represents all shareholders, it shall exercise its duties with loyalty and care in the management of the Company and undertake the measures to protect the Company's interests and contribute to its development and maximize its value, and shall, at all times, prioritize the Company's interests over their own interests. The Board shall carry out its responsibilities in light of the regulating provisions as stipulated in the Companies Law, the Implementing Regulations for listed joint stock Companies, and the Company's Bylaw.
- 4.2 The Company's Board shall be the ultimate body responsible for its work, even if it delegates committees, entities or individuals to exercise or carry out some of its powers. In all cases, the Board may not issue a general or unlimited authorization, taking into account the following:
- 4.2.1 The Board may not delegate an authority that is reserved for the General Assembly or prohibited by the Company's law.
- 4.2.2 That a decision is issued by the Board authorizing a person to perform a specific work(s), and that the authorization ends at its expiry.
- 4.2.3 The authorized person obtains a Power of Attorney, if necessary.

- 4.2.4 The Board performs its duties responsibly, in good faith, seriousness and interest, and its decisions are based on adequate information from the executive management, or any other reliable source.
- 4.2.5 Board members participate effectively and objectively in meetings and in the Company's strategic decision-making processes.
- 4.3 The Board member shall consider the following:
 - 4.3.1 Representing the interests of all shareholders.
 - 4.3.2 Commitment to what achieves the interest of the Company in general and not the interests of the group that voted on their appointment in the Board.
 - 4.3.3 Demonstrating the highest degree of integrity and independence in decision-making.
 - 4.3.4 Dedicate the time and attention necessary to perform their duties and tasks in the Board.
 - 4.3.5 The Board shall ensure that a proper orientation mechanism exists for new members, to acquaint them with the company's objectives, particularly its financial and legal aspects, and to ensure that they understand their roles and responsibilities.
 - 4.3.6 The Board shall ensure that the Company provides adequate information on its affairs to all members of the Board in general and to non-executive members in particular, in order to enable them to carry out their duties and tasks adequately. This is done through agendas for Board meetings, written reports sent to them, or direct communication.
- 4.4 The responsibilities of the Board and duties shall include the following:
